Notes and Prerequisites for BA in Dance Core Courses

Ballet	Modern Dance Technique	Dance Composition	World Culture	Production Study
Students may waive Ballet 1 and/or 2 if assessed by faculty as proficient. BA Majors with insufficient skill level in ballet may repeat Ballet 1 and Ballet 2 one time only for credit. Ballet 3 may be repeated an unlimited number of times for credit.	Modern Dance 2 may be repeated one time only for credit. Modern Dance 3 may be repeated each fall semester until graduation. Modern Dance 4 may be repeated each spring semester until graduation.	A student may take Dance Composition once they have completed Modern 3 and/or 4, or they can be co-registered at the same time as they are taking Modern 3 or 4. Students must have taken Improvisation 1 prior to taking Dance Composition.	Students are required to take African Fusion Dance as a graduation requirement. Modern Dance 4 is the prerequisite for African Fusion dance.	Students are required to complete 0.5 credits of Production Study (206:161) per semester for a total of 1 credit. Production Study is not taken simultaneously with Dance Production (206:237). In certain circumstances, the one-year requirement may be taken in one semester. Consult the department for advising as to proper credit. Students must complete 30 hours of production crew work for 1 course credit.
