School-to-School Transfer into BFA Dance Program

1. Students will go online and complete the School-to-School Transfer Application, which can be found at https://www.ugadmissions.rutgers.edu/SchoolToSchool/. Please be aware, there are deadlines for each semester to complete and submit your application.

   December Auditions: For Beginning Program in the Spring Semester
   If a student plans to audition in December, they must apply in October or November. The application period will be open from October 1st – November 15th. They must apply during this period.

   January & February Auditions: For Beginning Program in the Fall Semester
   If a student auditions in January he or she must wait until February 1st (first day of application period) to get their results. The application period will be open from February 1st – March 15th. They must apply during this period.

2. Students must contact the dance office to register for one of the audition dates. Auditions are held during the months of December, January and February. Dates and times will be posted on website. Students must provide their name, RUID, email address, phone number, and address.

3. Students audition for the BFA program (he or she will receive a confirmation email one week prior to audition).

4. The Dean of Students for Mason Gross School of the Arts will make the final decision on whether a student will be accepted or denied to the program. Once a final decision has been made, students will be notified via email by the school-to-school website. In the email a student must click confirm. By doing so, the student sends an official acceptance via email response in the school-to-school website.

5. Students will then go ahead and meet with the Undergraduate Director, Frederick Curry and the Student Affairs Assistant, Ryan Lynch, where they will be advised on what courses they should take, and will review their transcripts. Their emails are frederick.curry@rutgers.edu and ryllynch@rci.rutgers.edu.
