Acting Callback Weekend 2017

Admissions decisions will be released on a rolling basis, but all students will receive a decision or an invitation to callback weekend no later than February 17. It is possible for students who auditioned on the same day to receive a decision or invitation on different days. We do our best to issue decisions or invitations as soon as possible.

Below is a general outline of the callback weekend schedule. Applicants invited to callback weekend will receive more detailed information at the time of invitation.

Callback weekend for the Actor Training Program at Rutgers will be divided into two sessions from March 2 to March 6. Each prospective student will be assigned to and participate in one session.

Session 1:

Thursday, March 2: 6pm-9pm  Check-in
Friday, March 3: 8am-9am  Check-in & Breakfast*
                  9am – 10pm  Callback monologues & workshops throughout the day
*Local prospective students may arrive from 8am – 9am but should be prepared to begin workshops and monologues at 9am.
Saturday, March 4: 9am – 4pm  Callback monologues & workshops

Session 1 ends at 4pm on Saturday, March 4. Students are asked to depart on Saturday. Accommodations may be made for students until Sunday morning if necessary.

Session 2:

Saturday, March 4: 6pm-9pm  Check-in Sunday, March 5: 8am-9am  Check-in & Breakfast*
                  9am – 10pm  Callback monologues & workshops throughout the day
*Local prospective students may arrive from 8am – 9am but should be prepared to begin workshops and monologues at 9am.
Monday, March 6: 9am – 4pm  Callback monologues & workshops

Session 2 ends at 4pm on Monday, March 6. Students are asked to depart on Monday. Accommodations may be made for students until Tuesday morning if necessary.