

Art Minor

Available to all undergraduate students who gain approval from their degree granting unit, the Art Minor track creates a space for non-major students who wish to explore their artistic interests alongside their academic pursuits and professional goals within the stimulating creative climate of Mason Gross School of the Arts. Art minors are not required to submit a portfolio for admission. To declare, one of the following courses must be completed with a grade of C or better: 07:081:121,227, or 228. To maintain status, students must adhere to a "C or better" grade requirement for all courses in the minor. Because studio courses are sequential, students are advised to declare a minor by the first semester of their junior year to allow for adequate time to complete the visual arts minor.
