

MINOR IN ART

This track is for non-major students who wish to explore their artistic interests alongside academic pursuits and professional goals within the creative environment of Mason Gross. It is comprised of diverse foundations courses essential to artistic practice, and not medium specific.

All Rutgers-New Brunswick undergraduate students are eligible to apply for approval to declare a minor in art. Space in this program is limited, and not guaranteed. Admission is based on the number of applications received, approval from the student's unit of matriculation and availability in the required courses. Students may only apply to the art minor during the application period in the academic year prior to the fall term in which they will have the minor added to their transcript. NOTE: New minor declarations begin in FALL term only.

KEY DATES:

Application period: December 1- March 1

Notification of approval: By March 20 for fall declaration.

TO APPLY FOR MINOR DECLARATION:

- Submit a Statement of Purpose (600-word max) to the Department of Art & Design HERE – the application will be open between December 1 to March 1.
